

Commercial Review, The (Portland, IN) - Wednesday, August 29, 2007

Robert L. Morrical, 82, North Meridian St., Redkey, died Friday at Ball Memorial Hospital in Muncie.

Born Aug. 20, 1924 in Jay County, he was the son of Charles and Pearl (Champ) Morrical.

He was married Oct. 14, 1949 to Juanita Cox, who survives.

A U.S. Army veteran of the Korean Conflict, he worked for 30 years as a machinist at Warner Gear, Muncie, before retiring in 1979.

He was a member of Redkey American Legion Post 401, Redkey Chamber of Commerce and Hillcrest Cemetery Board.

He also worked at Saxman's Auction Barn, Redkey.

Surviving in addition to his wife are a son, Jerry Wayne Morrical, Redkey; a daughter, Marsha Lou Morrical, Geneva; and one grandson.

Calling will be held Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m. at MJS Mortuaries - Redkey Chapel.

Services will be held at the funeral home Monday at 11 a.m., with the Rev. Randy Davis officiating.

Burial will be in Hillcrest Cemetery.

Contributed by Jane Edson