

Myrtle C., eldest daughter of George and Emma Briggs, departed this life Sunday evening, January 14, 1894; she was born January 6, 1880, aged 14 years and 8 days.

She seemed well until that dread disease consumption took hold of her and in less than a year it had claimed its prey.

She leaves a mother, two sisters, one brother and many relatives to mourn their loss.

Funeral services were conducted at the Liberty Church, by Rev. L. Hunt; interment in the Camden (Pennville) Cemetery.
