

Rhoda N. Swayne died Sunday morning at the home of her son. She had been an invalid for about seven years, the cause being paralysis.

Mrs. Swayne was seventy seven years of age. Her husband, Samuel F., died at Pennville, Jay county, Indiana, forty-nine years ago. Shortly afterward Mrs. Swayne moved to Jefferson township, Whitley county, where she took up 160 acres of land. There she lived until 1884, when she came to this city and since resided with her son, at whose home she died. Her only other child was the Mrs. Boles, mother of Mrs. Frank Safford and Miss Luella Boles, of this city, and Mr. Lawrence E. Boles who now resides in California.

The funeral was held at the residence at 11:30 o'clock Tuesday, services being conducted by Rev. P.J. Rice, of the Christian church, after which the remains were taken to Camden, Jay county, Ind. for interment.
