

Chloe Johnson was born in Delaware County, Ohio December 5, 1815 and died July 12, 1887, aged 71 years, 7 months and 7 days. She was married to Peter Bockoven Nov. 14, 1833 with whom she lived a loving a faithful wife for over 53 years.

They resided in Delaware County, Ohio till 1850, when they settled near New Corydon, Jay County, Ind., where for many years they endured the hardships incidental to a pioneer life.

In 1881, they moved to College Corner where she died. She embraced the Christian religion in her early womanhood since which she has lived a faithful Christian life.

Portland Commercial, Jay County, IN; July 21, 1887

Contributed by Jim Cox