

J. Clarence Bosworth, son of Thomas and Theresa R. W. Bosworth died October 17, 1895, aged 30 years and 4 days.

Clarence was always an obedient and kind son and brother, husband and father, ever ready to do what he could for others. Some time in Dec., 1894, he contracted la grippe. This dread disease affected his throat and refused to let go.

He leaves a wife, two children, father and many relatives who mourn his early death. He gave special directions concerning his funeral, which will take place under the direction of the Sons of Veterans, Sunday. The funeral sermon will be preached by Rev. F. Stovenour.
