

Rebecca Maud Gibson, wife of Bert Gibson, died from tuberculosis at eleven o'clock Monday morning at her home on East Elder Street. She was born near Liber on April 23, 1881 and has made her home in this city during the greater part of her life.

She was married to her husband less than one year ago.

Besides her husband she is survived by her father, Thomas Bosworth, Alabama and three brothers, James of Alabama, Bert of Eau Claire, Wisconsin and Richard, southwest of this city.

Funeral services were held at Liber and burial was in Liber Cemetery.

Portland Semi-Weekly Commercial, Jay County, IN; Wednesday, March 14, 1906

Contributed by Jim Cox