

Susan J. Hodge – at her residence on East Walnut Street, in the city of Portland on October 12, 1889. She was born October 13, 1855, being, at the time of her demise, 33 years, 10 months and 1 day old. She was the daughter of Mills and Julia Woods. She leaves a husband, one son, two brothers, two sisters and numerous relatives to mourn their loss. She made a profession of religion early in life, and joined the U. B. Church. She was a kind and affectionate wife and mother and a quiet modest, Christian lady. Her remains were interred in the Liber Cemetery. The funeral services were held in the Liber Church conducted by Rev. D. F. Spade, in the presence of a large and deeply affected congregation.
