

Journal Gazette, The (Fort Wayne, IN) - Monday, February 2, 1998

ALLEN D. MASTERS, 60, died Sunday at home. Born in Bryant, he retired from United Telephone after 26 years, and inspected fiber optic telephone construction the last five years. Surviving are his wife, Marilyn; three sons, Kurt Masters of Wilmore, Ky., Eric Masters of Chicago and Matthew Runyon of Allen, Texas; two daughters, Nancy Ford of Lakeland, Fla., and Robin Pijnapples of Portland; four brothers, Bobby of Fort Recovery, Ohio, Herbert of Bryant, Eldon of Indianapolis and Terry of Bloomington; three sisters, Helen Street of Pennville, Dorothy Fitzgerald of Indianapolis and Nancy Phillips of Monticello, Ky.; and six grandchildren.

Services at 10 a.m. Thursday at Baird-Freeman Funeral Home. Calling from 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday and from 2 to 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Burial in Limberlost Cemetery, Bryant. Memorials to Portland Rotary Foundation or to Mercer.