

Ash Myers

October 21, 1983 ~ October 24, 2014

Ash Myers, 31, left behind his family and friends way too early, Friday, October 24, 2014, in Muncie. He was born October 21, 1983, to John and Carol Haffner Myers. He attended Yorktown and Wapahani High Schools, and graduated from Truck Drivers Institute in Indianapolis.

Ash was employed by Complete Turf Services in Albany, installing artificial turf at the University of Michigan, Wisconsin University, Boston College, Lucas Oil Stadium, the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend and the soccer field at Ball State University.

Surviving are his parents, John and Carol Haffner Myers, Muncie; his children, Zoe and Zada Myers, Madison, Tennessee, and Dylan Myers, Muncie; his brother, Ryan Myers, Muncie; his nephew, Logan Myers, Richmond; his grandmother, Norma Haffner, Yorktown; several aunts, uncles and cousins; and his special friend, Micah Keesling.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents, George and Connie Myers, and Fred Haffner; and his uncle, Dick Myers.

Ash was a hard worker who loved his family, most especially his three children, being on the family farm, and loved riding and working on his Harley motorcycles. Ash was a great person, son, dad, family member and friend and will be truly missed.

Memorial services will be 6:00 p.m. Tuesday at Town Acres Church of Christ with Brian Howard officiating. The family will receive friends from 4:00 p.m. until service time at 6:00 p.m. Tuesday at the church.

Memorials may be sent to Limberlost Cemetery Association.
