

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams County, Indiana; April 17, 1989

JAMES V. BURK

James V. Burk, 87, route 2, Portland, a native of Adams County, died last Thursday in Community Care Center West, Portland, after having been ill several months.

He was born in Adams County on October 31, 1901 to Bartly and Christena Kelly Burk. He married Ada Meyer in 1925; she died in 1958. He married Lucy Holms in 1960; she died in 1975. He married Opal Brubaker in 1979 and she survives.

He was a bank examiner for the State of Indiana for 27 years, retiring in 1971. Afterward, he owned and operated an antique store in Portland.

The only other survivors are three nieces.

Funeral services were held Sunday, with burial in Mt. Zion Cemetery, east of Portland.

Contributed by Karin King