

Leland Lester Miller, the little son of Charles and Grace Miller, died at the home of its parents near Mt. Zion Saturday morning at 1:30 o'clock of bowel trouble, aged one month and eighteen days.

The funeral services were arranged to take place at Mt. Zion Sunday afternoon, with interment at the same place.

Portland Weekly Commercial; Thursday, August 4, 1904

Contributed by Jim Cox