

Union City Times-Gazette, Wednesday, January 24, 1940

Mrs. Margaret Nearon is dead.

Was lifelong resident of Jay County; funeral 2 p. m. Thursday.

Portland, Indiana, January 23. --- Margaret A. Nearon, 53, died at midnight Monday at her farm home seven miles east of Portland. She suffered from heart trouble for the past five years and her condition became serious one week ago.

Born in Noble township August 1, 1886, daughter of Hiram and Sarah (Houdeschell) Teeters, she had resided in Jay county all her life. On April 23, 1913, she was married to Jess Nearon, who survives with two daughters, Mildren and Marcell, at home; one son, Bernard, at home; the father, of Noble township; two sisters, Mrs. Alfred Miller of Noble township and Mrs. Leonard Penrod of Portland; six brothers, Homer, of Noble township, Orville of Sturgis, Mich., Elmer of Spartanburg, Russel of Midland, Mich., Fred of Detroit and Glenn of Fort Recovery. Two sons are deceased.

Funeral services will be held from the Bellefontaine church with Rev. B. H. Spratt in charge, assisted by Rev. E. E. Plumley. Burial will be made in the Mt. Zion cemetery. The body was removed from the Baird funeral home to the residence this evening.

Contributed by Casseopias

NEARON

Portland, Jan. 23 -

Funeral services for Margaret A. Nearon, 53, who died at midnight Monday at her farm home seven miles east of Portland, will be conducted Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bellefontaine Church, east of the city, Rev. B. H. Spratt will officiate assisted by Rev. E. E. Plumley, pastor.

Burial will be in Mt. Zion Cemetery.

Surviving are the husband, Jess Nearon; two daughters, Mildred and Marcell, at home; one son, Bernard at home; the father, Hiram Teeters of east of Portland; two sisters, Mrs. Alfred Miller, east of Portland and Mrs. Leonard Penrod of Portland.

Journal-Gazette, Fort Wayne, IN; January 24, 1940

Contributed by Jim Cox