

John Nixon, an aged and much respected farmer, died near Mt. Pleasant last week of apoplexy. Mr. Nixon was the father of Joseph P. Nixon, at one time treasurer of Jay County.

He was a man of Christian habits, very industrious, and highly respected by all who knew him. Rev. F. Stovenour officiated at the grave.

Portland Commercial, Jay County, IN; July 7, 1887

Contributed by Jim Cox