

Imogene Raszkowski, 89, 4299 South 850 East, Portland, passed away early Tuesday morning at her residence.

She was born in Union City, Indiana on April 24, 1921, the daughter of Rock and Josedna (Grice) Prescott. She was married to Edward Raszkowski and he passed away in 2002. She was a homemaker and farmer's wife. She was a member of the Pleasant Hill Church.

Surviving are three sons, Edward E. Raszkowski of Union City, IN, Joe Raszkowski of Portland, and Jim Raszkowski of Indianapolis; two daughters, Mrs. Bill (Pauline) Williamson of Fort Recovery, and Mrs. Dan (Carol) Bousman of West Bend, WI; two brothers, Dale Prescott of Union City, and Phillip Prescott of Winchester; two sisters, Mrs. Joe (Phyllis) Collins of Muncie, and Joyce Sommers of Ft. Wayne; 12 grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Friday at 1 p.m. in the Pleasant Hill Church with burial in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery. Visitation will be Thursday from 3-8 p.m. in the Baird-Freeman Funeral Home and one hour prior to the services at the church. Memorials can be made to Pleasant Hill Church Building Fund or Gideans International.

Contributed by Jane - no source listed