

Rev. James Redkey, one of the pioneers of Jay County, died on last Monday morning. The funeral occurred on Wednesday and was largely attended. He was in his 77th year. He leaves a monument to his memory in the name of the town, in which he so long resided.

Portland Commercial, Jay County, IN; Thursday, October 24, 1889

Contributed by Jim Cox