

Robert [Langenkamp], 83, Portland, died at Persimmon Ridge Healthcare.

He was a son to Clarence and Anna (Kemper) Langenkamp Sr. On Aug 30, 1952, he married Rita Carolyn Burnham, who preceded him in death.

Surviving are four sons, Robert Jr. (Frances) and Roger (Debbie), all Portland, Ray (Jackie), Fort Recovery, and Ryan, Salamonia; five daughters, Rhonda (Dave) Hoying, Rose Stephen and Rita (Donny) Stephen, all Portland, Renee (Jerry) Huber, Tipp City, and Roxann Abels, Montezuma; two brothers, Clarence Jr., Fort Recovery, and Allen, St. Henry; thirty grandchildren and nineteen great-grandchildren.

He was a farmer and hauled milk. He was a U.S. Army Korean War Veteran and served in the Army Reserves for 17 years. He was a member of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Portland. He was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Fort Recovery and the American Legion, St. Henry.

Funeral services are at the church, the Rev. Robert Moran, officiating.

Contributed by Mike Dearbaugh - no source listed