

Commercial Review, The (Portland, IN) - Thursday, April 17, 2008

Ora Lee LeMaster, 87, 229 W. McNeil St., Portland, died Tuesday at Miller's Merry Manor in Dunkirk.

Born on June 17, 1920, in Jay County, to Harry and Rebecca (Lindsay) Brady, she was married on May 9, 1942, to Garth L. LeMaster, who died on Feb. 5, 1998.

She was a homemaker and attended Portland Friends Church.

Surviving are three sons, Garth L. "Mike" LeMaster, Portland; James "David" LeMaster, Portland, and Pat LeMaster, Balbec; a daughter, Martha "LeAnn" Morrical, Indianapolis; three sisters, Ann Reed, Florida, Marie Bierbaum, Elkhart, and Doris Myers, Minnesota; nine grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Services are Monday at 11 a.m. in Baird-Freeman Funeral Home.

Burial will be in Salamonica Cemetery.

Visitation is Monday from 9 to 11 a.m. at the funeral home.

Memorials may be sent to Portland Friends Church, Gideons International or State of the Heart Home Health and Hospice.

Contributed by Jane Edson