

Commercial Review, Monday, January 3, 1927, pg 1

Mrs. Gerald LeMaster, 28, of Salamonia, southeast of here, died of heart trouble about 6 o'clock Monday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. Grace Bell, at Indianapolis, where she had been visiting for the past two weeks. Undertaker N.R. Williamson left for Indianapolis this morning to return the body to his mortuary here and after being prepared for burial the body will be removed to the late home in Salamonia Tuesday.

The deceased had been ailing for some time, but her condition was not considered serious when she went to Indianapolis to visit her sister. She was taken ill after arriving there. Besides the husband, she leaves three children, Maxine, Nadine and Roberta at home; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kantner, living south of Salamonia; two sisters, Mrs. Bell, at whose home she died, and Miss Mary Kantner, also of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Jones, of Pennville, and two brothers, John Kantner, of Union City, and Guy, at home.