

OBITUARY:

"Edna Moody, 82, 634 E. Water St., Portland died at the Swiss Village in Berne. She had been a bookkeeper with First National Bank in Portland. Born Oct. 17, 1914 in Van Wert, Ohio, she was the daughter of Jacob and Nellie (Shreeve) Platt. She was married June 8, 1935 to John Moody who died Aug 3, 1990. Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. David (Joy) Scotten, Portland; two brothers, Ray Platt, Pennville, and David Platt, Monroe, Mich.; four sisters, Mrs. Ray (Norma) Barger, Santa Monica, Calif., Mrs. Roy (Mary Catharine) Blunk, Portland, Mrs Eugene (Mable Jean) Caylor, Pennville, and Mrs. D. Hamor (June Marie) Wiliamson, Portland; three grandchildren; three stepgrandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren. Burial was in Salamonia Cemetery. Memorials suggested to Swiss Village in Berne or Cancer Society."

The Commercial Review, Portland, IN; 18 Mar 1997

Source: "Platt & Horner Descendants" Vol. I, Compiled by Sally Ann (Platt) Henry Ivy, printed by The HF Group, North Manchester, IN., 2008

Contributed by Barbara Chipres