

Journal Gazette, The (Fort Wayne, IN) - Tuesday, September 26, 2000

DIANA LEA MOORE, 56, died Sunday at her home. Born in Jay County, she had worked at JCI in Portland for 10 years. She worked in the food service department at Jay County High School for nine years. She also was a beautician in her home. Surviving are her husband, Larry Jay; her mother, Mildred Smith of Portland; two sons, Todd Alan of Ridgeville and Keith Eugene of rural Ridgeville; a daughter, Rhonda K. Short of Ridgeville; three sisters, Sandy Fields of Lostine, Ore., Gayle Bell of Hartford City and Diana Kay Foudray of Winchester; two brothers, George Michael Smith and Randy Smith, both of rural Portland; and four grandchildren. Services at 11 a.m. Thursday at the Portland Chapel of the Williamson and Spencer Funeral Home. Calling from 3 to 8 p.m. Wednesday. Memorials to Jay County Humane Society.

Contributed by Jane Edson