

Commercial Review, The (Portland, IN) - Friday, January 14, 2005

Services for E. Helen Sipe, 94, who died Thursday morning at Heritage Commons, are Saturday at 10 a.m. in the Portland Chapel of the Williamson & Spencer Funeral Home with the Rev. Jim McDonald officiating. Burial is in the Salamonina Cemetery.

She had been a resident of Heritage Commons Assisted Living Center, Portland, for the past two years and a former Noble Township resident.

Born October 23, 1910 in McMinnville, Tenn., she was the daughter of Orris H. and Mary M. (Meehan) Sipe. She was never married.

A member of the Fairview United Methodist Church and the Portland Evening Optimist Club, she was a former employee of Naas Canning Corp., formerly of Portland and Westinghouse Corp. of Union City.

She is survived by one brother, Howard E. Sipe, rural Madison Township; one sister, Anna L. Wolford, rural Bryant and several nieces and nephews.

Calling is from 4 to 8 p.m. on Friday and prior to services on Saturday at the funeral home.

Memorials may be made to the Fairview United Methodist Church, the Gideon's International or the Portland Evening Optimist Club.
