

Emmaretta (Able), wife of J. J. Whittacre was born in Madison Township August 13, 1871, and died at her home two and one-half miles southeast of Salamonia on Wednesday January 31, 1900; aged 28 years, 4 months and 19 days. Mrs. Whitacre had been confined to the house for about seven months.

Ellura Mable, her infant child was taken sick on Friday of last week and died while the undertaker was present.

Both mother and baby were placed in the same casket, the child in its mother's arms. The funeral services will take place at Salamonia Christian Church tomorrow at 11 o'clock conducted by Rev. S. A. Armstrong; interment at the same place.

Portland Commercial, Jay County, IN; February 6, 1900

Contributed by Jim Cox