Rosaline Ault, 77

Services for Rosaline Ault, 77, a long time Pennville resident, will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Pennville Chapel of the Williamson & Spencer Funeral Home.

Mrs. Ault died Thursday, Nov. 20, enroute to Bluffton Regional Medical Center; she had been a resident of Millers Merry Manor Nursing Center in Dunkirk for the past year.

Born Jan. 11, 1926 in Marion to Manderville C. and Hazel Lockwood Prouty, she married Orval E. Ault on June 13, 1942; he died Dec. 27, 2002. She had worked at Armstrong Glass in Dunkirk and as a housekeeper in the Pennville area. She was a member of the Pennville American Legion Auxiliary.

She is survived by a son, Don E. Ault of Poneto; three daughters, Sadonna Rose Pryor of Dunkirk, Mrs. Keith (Carol) Frauhiger of Bluffton, and Mrs. Jim (Jill) Patrick of Monroe; two brothers, Keith Prouty of Alsea, Oreg., and Harold Prouty of Pennville; a sister, Betty Stansbury of Pennville; eight grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by a sister, a grandchild and one great-grandchild.

Visitation hours will be from 2 to 6 p.m. Saturday and prior to the service Sunday at the funeral home in Pennville. Pastor Randy Davis will officiate and burial will be in the IOOF Twin Hills Cemetery. Preferred memorials to the Jay County Heart Foundation.
