

Brunson

Portland, Jan. 6 – The ashes of Richard V. Brunson, 36, former Jay County resident who died at Seattle, Wash., Dec. 30, arrived today at the Baird Funeral Home here. He was a native of Jay County, a graduate of Poling High School and a veteran of World War II and for the past several years had been employed at the Seattle-Tacoma Airport. He is survived by the widow, Betty; three children; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Brunson, who now reside at Wickenburg, Ariz.; a brother, William Brunson, Wickenburg; a sister, Mrs. Howard VanMaire, Bryant, and a grandfather, Burton Brunson, Portland. Graveside rites will be conducted at 11 a.m. Tuesday in the IOOF Cemetery at Pennville by Elder Ward Weisel.

Portland Commercial Review, Jay County, IN; January 1956