Frank Ingram, 67, University Nursing Center, Upland, a former resident of 640 Flora Ave., Portland, died early today at Marion General Hospital, Marion, following an extended illness.

He had worked at Indiana Glass in Dunkirk, and was an Army veteran of World War II. He was a member of the Portland Eagles and American Legion lodges, and Local 501 Flint Glass Workers Union.

Born July 14, 1926, in Farmers, Ky., he was the son of Frank and Stella (Archer) Ingram.

Surviving are one son, Frank Ingram II, Portland; one stepson, Harold Odahlen, Washington; one daughter, Shirley Young, Brentwood, Calif.; one stepdaughter, Edwarda Hicks, Portland; one brother, Herman Ingram, Portland; two sisters, Betty Kelly, Portland and Bonnie Hartnagel, Coldwater, Mich.; one aunt; 13 grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Services are set for 2:30 pm Wednesday in the Baird-Freeman Funeral Home, Portland. Burial will be in the IOOF Cemetery at Pennville.

Portland Commercial Review, Jay County, IN; December 27, 1993

Contributed by Jim Cox