

Kokomo Tribune, Kokomo, Indiana; Friday, January 2, 1953

LORA MILLS

Lora Mills, a native and former resident of the Hemlock community, died at 2:30 a.m. Thursday in the Caylor-Nickles Clinic, Bluffton, where he had been under treatment for a complication of disorders. He lived on a farm near Montpelier.

Surviving are the widow, formerly Miss Ida Pickering, to whom he was married in 1902, and two children, Mrs. Belva Norton of Bluffton and George Mills who lives in the same community with his parents. There are several grandchildren. A number of relatives live in Howard County.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Sunday at the Pennville Methodist Church and burial will be in the Pennville cemetery. Friends may call at the home, one mile east of Fiat.

Contributed by Karin King