

Commercial Review, The (Portland, IN) - Monday, September 11, 2006

Charles A. Spade, 91, Hickory Street, Dunkirk, died Thursday at Ball Memorial Hospital, Muncie.

He was born March 10, 1915, in Dunkirk to Richard and Bernice C. (Bergdoll) Spade and was married to Helen V. Cooper, who died in 2003.

Spade, a lifetime area resident, was a farmer and worked at Kerr Glass until 1980. He was a member of Local Union No. 96.

Survivors include two sons, Darrel Spade, Parker City, and Larry Spade, Dunkirk; three daughters, Mrs. Fred (Judy) McClain, Texas, Mrs. Steven (Margie) Storie, Redkey, and Mrs. Ellis (Rita) May, Kentucky; 14 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

Services are Monday at 11 a.m. at Bethel United Methodist Church, north of Dunkirk. Burial will be in the Pennville I.O.O.F. Cemetery.

Visitation is Sunday from 2 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. at M.J.S. Mortuaries - D.W. Chapel, Dunkirk.

Memorials may be made to the Alzheimer's Association.

Contributed by Jane Edson