

Nina B. Stultz, 93, 495 W. Union St., Pennville, and a resident of the Portland Community Care Center West for the past four months, died Tuesday afternoon at Jay County Hospital following a brief illness.

She and her husband farmed in the Pennville area for many years.

She was a member of the Pennville United Methodist Church where she belonged to the Ruth Circle. She was also a member of the En Avant Club in Pennville, the Penn Township Extension Homemaker's Club, the National Grange Organization and was a 50-year member of the Pennville Rebekah Lodge.

Born Oct. 17, 1898, in Jefferson Township, she was the daughter of Samuel and Lorraine (Davis) Stephen. She was married Feb. 12, 1916, to Lloyd W. Stultz who died in 1967.

Surviving are one son, George F. Stultz, RR 5, Portland; one daughter, Mrs. Pauline Irey, Lancaster, Ohio; six grandchildren and one great-great grandson.

Services are set for 11 am Friday in the Pennville Chapel of the Williamson and Spencer Funeral Home with Rev. Kent Patterson and Rev. Richard Bennett officiating. Burial will be in the Pennville IOOF Cemetery.

Commercial Review - Portland, IN; Wednesday, May 6, 1992

Contributed by Jim Cox