

THOMAS

Pennville, Jan. 6 – Lewis Thomas, 74, a retired farmer, died late yesterday in the Jay County Hospital, Portland, several hours after suffering a heart attack at his home here. He was a native of Penn Township and is survived by the widow, Maud; two daughters, Mrs. George Horton, Pennville, and Mrs. William Boxell, Marion; a son, Lewis N. Thomas, Greene Township; nine grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Fred Baughman, Greene Township. Friends may call at the Williamson Funeral Home, Portland, where services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday by the Rev. Harvey Brown. Burial will be in the IOOF Cemetery, Pennville.

Portland Commercial Review, Jay County, IN; January, 1957