

Journal Gazette, The (Fort Wayne, IN) - Tuesday, August 17, 1999

Montpelier -- ESTHER E. FRAZEE, 67, died Sunday at Lutheran Hospital in Fort Wayne. Born in Muncie and formerly of Pennville, she worked for Balastran Corp., Portland. She had worked at Kerr Glass and Indiana Glass in Dunkirk for 10 years. Her husband, the Rev. Charles, died 1987. Surviving are four sons, Glendon E. of Hartford City, Ralph L. and Dennis J., both of Pennville and David A. of Indianapolis; a daughter, Karen A. Frazee of Montpelier; three brothers, Kenneth Brown Jr. of Daleville, Gayle E. Brown of Pennville and Larry W. Brown of rural Portland; two sisters, Velma Musgrove of Albany and Marcella Faucett of Anderson; and five grandchildren.

Services at 11 a.m. Wednesday at Union Chapel Church of the Nazarene, northwestern Jay County. Calling an hour before services. Calling also from 1 to 9 p.m. today at Williamson & Spencer Funeral Homes, Portland.

Burial in IOOF Twin Hills Cemetery, Pennville. Memorials to the church.

Contributed by Jane Edson