

Journal Gazette, The (Fort Wayne, IN) - Thursday, November 13, 1997

RALPH E. HUDSON, 69, died Tuesday at home. He retired in 1981 after 30 years at Delco-Remy Plant in Anderson. He was a World War II Army veteran. Surviving are his wife, Vivian; a son, Ralph A. of Dunkirk; two daughters, Joyce Hart and Marla Lawrence, both of Winchester; two brothers, Raymond Hudson of Hartford City and Troy Jr. of Pennville; a sister, Mary Belle Smith of rural Dunkirk; nine grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

Services at 1 p.m. Friday at Pennville Chapel of the Williamson and Spencer Funeral Home. Calling from 2 to 8 p.m. today.

Burial in IOOF (Twin Hills) Cemetery, Pennville, with military graveside rites by Pennville American Legion Post No. 482.

Contributed by Jane Edson