

RIDGEVILLE - Sharon L. Osborne, age 72, a resident of rural Ridgeville, passed away on Thursday at Randolph Nursing Home in Winchester.

Sharon was born on December 15, 1937, in Portland, Indiana, the daughter of Ed and Dorthea (Limbert) Mast.

She graduated from Portland High School in 1955 and attended nursing school in Richmond. She was a member of the Quilt Club in Portland. Sharon married Robert I. Osborne on March 4, 1956, she and her husband farmed in Ridgeville for many years. He passed away on November 22, 1985.

Survivors include her mother, Dorthea "Dottie" Fields, Portland, Indiana; one son, David W. Osborne (wife, Lora) of Daleville, Indiana; two daughters, Teresa Denton of Ridgeville, Indiana, Mary Ann Osborne of Indianapolis, Indiana; ½ brothers, Ed Mast, Jr. of Winchester, Indiana, Ralph Mast of Goshen, Indiana; ½ sisters, Janie Randolph of Portland, Indiana, Debbie Osborne of Bluffton, Indiana, Janice Plummer of Texas, Diane Romine of Chattanooga, Tennessee; several grandchildren and great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her daughter, Sheri Anne Osborne.

Visitation for Sharon Osborne will be held on Saturday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Portland Chapel of the Williamson and Spencer Funeral Home.

Funeral services will be held at 1:00 p.m. Saturday in the Portland Chapel of the Williamson and Spencer Funeral Home. Pastor Jonathon Edwards will officiate and burial will follow in the Wayman Blankenbaker Cemetery, north of Dunkirk. Online condolences may be sent to <http://www.williamsonspencer.com>.

Williamson & Spencer Funeral Home online obit (accessed 3/18/2014)