

Samuel A. Kelly, 76, of Kokomo, passed away Sunday, June 17, 2001 at Windsor Estates Health and Rehab Center in Kokomo. He was born Jan. 4, 1925 in Sullivan, and was the son of Andrew and Margaret (Templin) Kelly. He retired in 1986 from Chrysler Corporation in Kokomo where he had worked for 30 years as an inspector. He had served with the U.S. Army during World War II. Survivors include, two sons and daughters-in-law, John A. and Sandy Kelly of Frankfort and Terry W. and Kathy Kelly of Peru; one daughter, Mary Jane Sullivan of Kokomo; one daughter and son-in-law, Linda and Richard Green of Flora; three sisters, Roberta June Goad of Linton, Margaret Garrison of Kokomo, and Bessie Lee Becker of Florida; 14 grandchildren; one great granddaughter. He was preceded in death by his wife, Valerya Mae Weaver on Sept. 30, 1994. Funeral services will be at Portland Chapel of the Williamson & Spencer Funeral Home at 1 p.m. on Thursday, with the Rev. John Gibson officiating. Burial will follow at the Wells Cemetery in Portland.

Contributed by Susan (Haldeman) Fowler - no source listed