

Frank B. Steen, City Resident Dies Thursday

Frank B. Steen, 73, died Thursday at 2:45 at the family home, 115 East Penn St., Portland, after an extended illness. He had been employed at Haynes Milling Co. for a number of years.

Friends call at the Baird Funeral Home 3 p.m. in charge of Rev. Barlow with internment in Union Chapel Cemetery.

Mr. Steen was born at Byrant Feb. 11, 1884, son of Robert and Christina (Landers) Steen. He was married Oct. 21, 1923, Deliah Geesaman, who survives, with eight sons, Albert, Floyd, Robert, Clarence, Franklin, Fred, Cecil and Homer Steen, all of Portland.

Mrs. Ivan Duff of Geneva, R R 1; two brothers, Harry Steen of Huntington and Hollis Steen of Olney, Illinois; two sisters, Mrs. Merl Houck and Mrs. John Weaver, both of Portland.

Contributed by genealogy guy 2012 - no source listed