

Recorder, Porterville, CA; Tues., Aug. 4, 1981, page 11

Harley S. Brunson, 95, a Porterville resident nearly half his life died Monday at Carmichael Rest Home, Carmichael, after a long illness.

A native of Indiana, Brunson worked in the oil fields as a compressor engineer.

He is survived by a daughter, Verling Ramalho of Carpinteria, and three sons, Jack of Carpinteria, Arthur of Fair Oaks, and Frank of Porterville; eight grandchildren: and 20 great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted in Porterville at 11 a.m. in Hillcrest Memorial Park. Loyd Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

Evening Recorder, Porterville, CA; 8-5-1981, page 10

BRUNSON - In Carmichael, Aug. 3, 1981, Harley S. Brunson, 95, native of Indiana and Porterville resident nearly half his life. Worked in oil fields as a compressor engineer. Father of Verling Ramalho, Jack, and Arthur and Frank Burnson, grandfather of eight, great grandfather of 20. Funeral services will be conducted in Porterville at 11a.m. Thursday in Hillcrest Memorial Park. Loyd Chapel is in charge of arrangements.