Bethel F. Murphey

Bethel Fern Murphey, was the fifth child born to the marriage of Attorney J.C. Murphey (James Cary) and Frances Ceturah (Bower) Murphey, and a great-great-granddaughter of John and Jane Murphey, who settled the town of Morocco in 1851.

Bethel was born on Wednesday, the 26th of November, 1894 at the family homestead, 345 North Lincoln, Morocco, which had become the family residence a few weeks before her birth, having moved from the Beaver Township farm home of George and Amanda (Archibald) Murphey. At the age of six she entered Morocco Public grade school and continued in school until her graduation in the class of 1914, which had 21 graduates.

The following summer was spent in Normal Teachers Training School at Winona Lake, Indiana. Through later years she attended summer terms at Indiana University and Terre Haute College. Bethel taught in various type schools, spending 42 years in that profession, all in Newton County, Indiana, where she had high rank in her scholastic ability and was known as a dedicated teacher in her class rooms, working overtime long hours out of interest to her pupils' welfare.

In 1911 she became a member of the Morocco Christian Church, founded by her father, J.C. Murphey and William Archibald, former members of the famous old Antioch Church in Washington Township, Newton County. Her confession and baptism were during Evangelistic services (Protracted Meetings) of Reverend Sellers and singer, St. John. Later years she became a member of the United Church of Morocco at the union of the Christian and Baptist Churches here in 1969.

Organizations in which she worked as a charter member were the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, Tent 42, and the American Legion Auxiliary, Post 146. Her memberships were also in the National Retired Teachers Association and the Newton County Teachers Retirement Group.

Miss Murphey lived 33 years in her wheel chair, helping when possible in community projects holding her fellow citizen interests in deep concern, and in turn they respected the stamina of her courageous life.

Her Guardian Angel came June 27, 1989 and guided her home to God. Funeral services were held at the Cardwell Funeral Home in Morocco on June 29, 1989 by the Rev. Royal Voeller and Dr. Marvin Parli. Interment was at Oakland Cemetery.
