Not by their first -

"Andrick Co. Sur. History by Hon. John W. Andrick published 1914 page 593 states that "James Strong married under the partnership in the Kentucky Term (Shelby Co.) until he was eighteen years old when he married, and together he and his young wife came to Andrick Co., Ark. at first - back looking a few years with a view of their studies proceeded. This was in 1838 and they took up their abode near of Summit on Mill Creek, being among the very first who did not enter the land. He passed the remainder of his life on the farm place he owned when first coming to Arkansas.

He was the father of 10 children: "who lived, but 11."

John Strong, the elder, joined the regular Baptist church at Summit, the 3d Sat. in April 1838 by letter and Abner Strong his wife joined the same church the 3d Sat. in Sept.
1839 by letter.
