

Wabash Courier
1844-1845

Date: Saturday, October 25, 1845 p2

Location: Terre Haute, Indiana

Paper: Wabash Courier

Obituary for Marvin Preston - Send for Copy

Date: Saturday, December 28, 1844 - Page 3

Location: Terre Haute, Indiana

Paper: Wabash Courier

Died

In Terre haute on the 25th inst., Mr John C McClary, aged abut 40 years.

Date: Saturday, February 1, 1845 - Page 3

Location: Terre Haute, Indiana

Paper: Wabash Courier

Died

At the residence of her husband, in Sugar Creek Township, on Thursday morning last, Mrs Ann Crawford, wife of Leonard Crawford, Esq. And daughter of the late Dr Durkee of Tippecanoe county.

At Princeton in this State, on the 27th inst., suddenly of Paralysis Mr Joseph Graff, late a respectable resident of the place, in the 69th year of his age.

Date: Saturday, April 26, 1845 - Page 3

Location: Terre Haute, Indiana

Paper: Wabash Courier

Died

In Terre Haute, after a short illness with croup, on the 13th inst. Ann Mary, daughter of Thomas and Ann Wahle?, aged 3 years 2 months and 9 days.

In this place, on Monday last, of Inflammation of the Brain, Edward Fearn, aged 3 years 8 months and 4 days - son of Thomas and Elizabeth Fearn.

The deceased was a child of great promise, possessing, in a remarkable degree , those generous and noble qualities that endeared him to all who knew him, and rendered him the pride and hope of his parents; but, alike with the strong man, the aged and infirm, the young and promising, are amenable to the inscrutable laws of Heaven, and it is not us to murmur. We mourn not without hope, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven. - Com

Date: Saturday, August 16, 1845 - Page 2

Location: Terre Haute, Indiana

Paper: Wabash Courier

Death of Mr Thompson

We regret to learn that Lewis G Thompson, late the Whig candidate for Congress in the 10th district, died on the 8th inst., after a severe illness of eight days.

Date: Saturday, April 13, 1844 - Page 3

Location: Terre Haute, Indiana

Paper: Wabash Courier

Died

On Thursday evening, the 4th, inst. Wm Carr Lane, infant son of James and Harriet Farrington

Date: Saturday, March 29, 1845 - Page 3

Location: Terre Haute, Indiana

Paper: Wabash Courier

Died

Suddenly, on Wednesday morning last, about five o'clock. A M, at his farm in Vigo County, John Jackson, Senior, in the seventy-second year of his age.

Mr Jackson was a native of England, and emigrated to America with his family in the year 1787. He lived in the State of New York until 1814. Thence he moved to Ohio, and in 1820 settled in Vigo County, Indiana, where he has ever since resided. He was elected to the Legislature in 1827, and has always borne the character of a highly respectable and honest man. Mr Jackson has raised a large family, many of whom were settled around him. He was a valued member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the last thirty years of his life. And now passes to the grave in a good old age - leaving behind him a reputation of great worth, and a character, that any or all may be proud to hold up as an example, for imitation before the world.

Sentence of Samuel Dias, as Pronounced by Judge Law, May 11th 1844

Date: Saturday, May 18, 1844 - Page 2

Location: Terre Haute, Indiana

Paper: Wabash Courier

Samuel Dias: You have been charged by the Grand Jury of your County, on their oath with having purposely, of deliberate and premeditated malice, murdered George Brock, by giving to him three mortal wounds with an axe; of which mortal wounds, he instantly died. The deed is alleged to have been committed in the County on the 16th day of October last.

Above is just the first paragraph, send for copy as it is a very long article. Send an email to Martha with the name 'Samuel Dias' and I will send the article to you.