

EDDINGFIELD RITES WERE HELD MONDAY

The body of Mrs. Mary M. Eddingfield was sent to this city from Grand Island, Neb., Sunday afternoon on train No. 4 over the Wabash railroad, which arrives in this city at 5:02 o'clock. It was then taken to the Stults undertaking parlors where it remained until Monday, when the body was taken to Victor Chapel where funeral services were conducted. Burial took place in the Jones cemetery where the husband and two children were buried.

Mrs. Eddingfield died at the home of her son in Nebraska, Thursday afternoon. She was born in Ohio, January 15, 1829. She was eighty-five years old. She was the mother of six children two of whom survive. They are two sons, one living in Kansas, the other in Nebraska. Short funeral services were held at Grand Island, Neb., at the Trinity church Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.
